Written Expression - B1++Score: 70%

Can convey information and ideas on abstract as well as concrete topics, check information and ask about or explain problems with reasonable precision. Can write straightforward connected texts on a range of familiar subjects within his/her field of interest, by linking a series of shorter discrete elements into a linear sequence. Can write very brief reports to a standard conventionalised format, which pass on routine factual information and state reasons for actions. Can take notes as a list of key points during a straightforward lecture/meeting. Communicates with reasonable accuracy in familiar contexts; control is generally good, though with noticeable mother tongue influence. Errors occur, but it is clear what he/she is trying to express. Can produce continuous writing, which is generally intelligible throughout. Spelling, punctuation and layout are accurate enough to be followed most of the time. Can clearly express the main point he/she wants to make.

Has enough language to get by, with sufficient vocabulary to express him/herself with some hesitation and circumlocutions in common topics. Can compare and contrast alternatives, discussing what to do, where to go, who or which to choose, etc. Can follow much of what is said around him/her on general topics provided interlocutors avoid very idiomatic usage and articulate clearly. Pronunciation is clear, even if a foreign accent is sometimes evident and occasional mispronunciations occur. Can express belief, opinion, agreement and disagreement politely. Can deliver short, rehearsed speeches, despite stress and intonation that is at times unnatural. Can give a prepared, straightforward presentation or speech on a familiar topic which is clear enough to be followed without difficulty most of the time, and in which the main points are explained with reasonable precision.
